PLEASANT HILL

Miss Dodge, Miss Fletcher, Miss Bacon and Mr. Boyce went to Knoxville Tuesday to attend the Ninth Annual Conference of the Southern Mountain Workers. The addresses of Dr. Frost, until recently president of Berea College, were the key stone of the conference. The addresses given by experts from several states covered various phases of rural life, stressing especially health and illiteracy.

The last Athenaeum of the year Friday evening presented a fine program of recitations and readings, songs, piano solos and several short plays.

Miss Hansen, formerly a teacher at Pleasant Hill and earlier associated with several of the teachers, is spending a few days with friends at the school.

The first base ball defeat of the season was inflicted by our friends in Crossville Friday afternoon with a score 7 to 8. Not dismayed by this catastrophe, our team went forth to its usual victory Saturday at Clifty, scoring 8 to 6.

AT THE MECCA, THURSDAY

At the Mecca Thursday night (tomorrow night) will be given the splendid movie, "The Forbidden Woman," featuring Clara Kimball Young, one of the most popular of movie stars. It will be a pleasant hour profitably spent to see this splendid play for it will cheer, refresh and entertain you at one and the same time. Be sure to see it, Thursday night.

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS

On the last day of May, a penalty of 5% will accrue on all unpaid taxes and same will be advertised for sale soon thereafter. Better pay before that time if you want to save cost.

CROSSVILLE, - - - TENNESSEE

A. Lee was over from Mayland Monday looking after business.

E. C. Ervine came home from Clifty Friday for a short stay with his family.

The ball game played here Friday afternoon between Crossville and Pleasant Hill teams resulted in a victory for the Crossville boys by one run. The score stood 8 to 7 in favor of Crossville. The Pleasant Hill boys went to bat nine times and had their full inning. When the Crossville boys went to bat in the ninth inning the score was a tie, 7 to 7; one run made by Crossville closed the game. How many more, if any, would have been made by Crossville had they held to the end of the last inning no one can tell. As it was the game was a close and interesting one and was much enjoyed by those present.

Tax Assessor, Thos. J. Kerley has more than half completed his work. This has been made possible by his securing the assistance of Dillard Shaver. Mr. Kerley and Mr. Shaver are trying to make a thorough job of it. Mr. Kerley tells us that he has been to places to assess taxes where the people never before saw a tax assessor and seemed surprised that he should visit them.

WE ARE closing out our entire line of slippers at cost. Now is your chance to buy them cheap. Every pair guaranteed.

W. T. Hale.

J. M. Tanner was over from Pleasant Hill Monday and favored this office with a pleasant call. For many years Mr. Tanner was a member of the county court and was counted one of the most safe men in that body.

Wm. Daves and family moved to their new home on their farm two miles west of town. Mr. Daves has considerable work to do yet to complete his residence but it is so he can move in and he will be more convenient to work on it.

J. Q. Watt was in town Monday. He has 70 head of cattle to put on the range this year. He also has one of the best farms in the county laying some ten miles south of town.

T. F. Hall, who is working for the Frank Russell State Company and is located at Epps, Ala., arrived home Sunday and will pass a few days looking after his farm at Linary.

I. E. Thurman, Litton Thurman, T. M. Rector and Lee Thurman went to some point on Obed river Monday for a few days fishing. They plan to return tomorrow or next day.

J. W. Laminack is arranging to do some repair work and painting on his residence in the near future. FOR SALE at bargain prices—300 pair plow shoes. Every pair guaranteed.

A movemnet is on foot to have a star mail route opened between Lantana and Clifty, a distance of about 15 miles. A short time ago the Lantana postoffice was discontinued. An effort is now being made to re-establish the Lantana postoffice with F. W. Ashburn as postmaster and the postoffice to be kept in the store of Mr. Ashburn. The proposed route is badly needed as considerable business is done between the people of the section of the county and Clifty. As it now is if a person within two or three miles of Clifty wishes to write a person in Clifty the letter must come to Crossville, from here go to Sparta and from there via Tullahoma and the N. C. & St. L. railroad to Clifty, a distance of 200 miles or more in order to get three miles.

J. E. Taylor hopes to get moved into his new hotel this week. While it will not be nearly completed it will be in shape so he can accommodate a few guests and the other work will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible. It will have hot and cold water, be electrically lighted and steam heated, making it one of the most comfortable hotels between Nashville and Knoxville.

Fred Dunlap arrived home a few days ago from Camp Dix, New Jersey, on a furlough of 15 days.

Mrs. Wiley Boston is confined to her bed and has been for many weeks.

Mr. Winningham, of Livingston, was here this week looking the field over with the idea of putting in a drug store. Indications now are that the venture will be a go.

John Q. Burnett was operated upon at Nashville Monday and the operation was entirely successful. He stood the ordeal well and his friends now confidently expect his speedy return to normal health. His brother J. L. Burnett was there and was much pleased at the strength and cheerfulness manifested by his brother after the operation.

OF MIXED BLOOD

Population of Scotland Made Up of Six Races.

Scotti Tribe, Originally Irish, Gave Their Name to the Country, According to the Historian.

The Scotch reached Scotland from Ireland and are not the descendants of Gaelic Celts who had been pushed north by a later (British) invasion of Britain. The first authentic information on Scotland dates from the time of the Romans, 79 A. D. Roman rule in Britain came to an end in 410, and Britain then ceased to be part of the Roman empire.

The population of Scotland is made up of Pictish, Irish, British, Saxon, Danish and Norman elements, all of them Indo-Celtic, the three first, Celtic, the three last, Germanic peoples. The Picts contributed the bulk of the population, but were overcome by the Scotti (Irish), who had settled in Dalriada, a part of the present county of Argyll. The Scotti then became the dominant people.

Brythonic Celts dwelt in Strathclyde; their chief city was Dumbarton (Dun Breton, "Fort of the Britons"). Toward the close of the Eighth century the Danes appeared and ravaged the coast settlements and the isles. The Saxons first appeared in 428 in Britain. In the Eleventh century Norman refugees first crossed the border into Scotland.

The first Irish colonization in Scotland took place toward the end of the second century, but the kingdom of Dalriada was not effected until the close of the fifth. It is these Scotti who have given their name to Scotland. The relations between the two countries were very close and lasted 1,000 years, or at least up to the Reformation, and the early literature and civilization of Scotland belong to Ireland.

According to legend, the name Scotch is derived from Scotia, a daughter of one of the Pharaohs. The word is probably related etymologically to the German Schatz, and means "masters, owners." Originally, and therefore in all medieval Latin texts down to the end of the Eleventh century, it meant only Ireland. Since that date it means specifically Scotland. The Scotch Gael never calls himself Scotch, but Gael, or, to indicate his country, Albanach. English-speaking Highlanders, even though Scotchmen, are Saxons in the mind of a Gael. In the Fifteenth century, when English became the predominant speech in the Lowlands, the English and non-Celtic Scotch called Gaelic "Erse." Since the Sixteenth century the name Scotch has been applied to the English spoken in the Lowlands. So, by a strange freak of fortune, Scotch, originally applied to a variety of Celtic, has come to mean Broad Scotch or Quaint English, a language of Germanic origin.

The distinction made between the Highlands and Lowlands of Scotland is correct merely so far as the physical configuration of the country is concerned, but incorrect if a racial significance is read into it. There is a mistaken notion that Scotland is a country of two races, Celtic in the North and Teutonic in the South, and that the latter element has displaced the former. No doubt the Lowland Scotchman is a person of very composite blood, but he is above all a Celt—From a Paper by Dr. Joseph Dunn before Anthropological Society of Washington, in the Scientific American Supplement.

Would You Like a New Name?

How many of us, if we had the chance, would change our Christian names?

Lady Kitty Vincent, writing to the London Daily Express, declares that there should be a law that the name given by our godfathers and our godmothers in our baptism should not be considered binding. When we reach the years of discretion, she says, we might be allowed to change them. Her ladyship continues:

"Remember the sad story of the parents who christened their daughter 'Wyde' because their name was Rose, and being artistic people, they thought it made a charming sound picture. But she married a man called Bull!"

Sawdust Has Value.

Sawdust as a waste product is a thing of the past, for it now serves many purposes and has an ever increasing commercial value. Mixed with clay it makes good tiles and bricks, and combined with concrete a good flooring material is obtained. It also finds a place in the dye industry for coloring purposes. A gas excellent both for lighting and heating purposes can be made from sawdust. It is believed that particularly in the neighborhood of sawmills, the gas could be produced so cheaply as to be supplied for a few cents a thousand feet.

Big Production Means Big Value!

THE fact that the Carey Factory at Lockland is the largest roll roofing plant in the country makes a difference to you in dollars and cents.

The Carey factories operate their own asphalt refineries thereby insuring the quality at all times.

They manufacture their own felts with the finest cost-saving machinery ever invented. They pay no middlemen's profits anywhere.

They employ many cost reducing methods in manufacturing which are not possible in a smaller plant.

They can put better felt and more asphalt in each roll of roofing and still keep the price down.

We offer you roll roofings in a wide choice of finishes and a choice of weights, to afford whatever length of service you wish to get, at the lowest possible cost for that service.

The L. A. L. club went to Daddys Saturday picnic. There were eight in the party and a jolly good time was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Mattie Taylor is much improved since going to the hospital at Nashville and plans are made for operating on her today. Her strength has been regained to such an extent that she is expected to stand the operation well and strong hopes are entertained for her speedy recovery.

Reports from Miss Annie McGuire, who went to the hospital at Nashville last week are that she is not improving so rapidly as her friends had hoped.

"Pheasant Shell."

This name is given to the shells of a gastropod mollusk of the family of Turbidae, which are much valued for their beauty, suggesting by their gorgeous metallic tints the plumage of pheasants.

Derivation of Word "Gipsy."

The name "gipsy" is probably derived from "Egyptian," by which term the gipsies were known in the English statutes.
